Book by St Michael's Episcopal Church

Ordered this book based on the reviews and am not disappointed at all. The recipes are mouth-watering. Can't wait to try them all!

This book is not only spiral-bound but also has a hardcover outside which makes it nice for reading or copying a recipe. The book is divided into eight sections - APPETIZERS; SOUPS & BEVERAGES; SALADS & Such [includes salads, dressings, chutney, pickles, & jellies]; BREADS, BRUNCHES & GRITS; VEGETABLES & GRAINS; MEATS, POULTRY & GAME; SEAFOOD; and finally, a chapter of DESSERTS. Each chapter begins with a watercolor and a story to go with it. I love the one about the bell ringers. "The bells of St. Michael's arrived in Charleston from England on the ship, Little Carpenter, July 15, 1764 and have crossed the Atlantic several times since. During the Revolution, the British claimed them as a prize of war....most recently, they were sent To England yet again after damage from Hurricane Hugo in 1989." Recipes range from "Christmas Coffee Punch for Rectory Drop-In" to "Spinach-stuffed Meatloaf". Far too many recipes to name them all but I love the comments from the cooks.....for example....BROWNIES: "I've made these since the 1940's. Once I tried a different recipe and my son asked what was wrong with the brownies. I said, "I used a different recipe". His reply was, "You WHAT?" TEXAS BARBECUE: "At our farm, the meat was swabbed with this sauce and cooked all night over hickory logs on a huge pit. The sauce was cooked ahead of time in an iron wash pot until it was thick. This oven method gives a pretty good imitation of the pit barbecue." PASTEL MELT-AWAYS: I made these for a bridal shower and the -pleading for more- hasn't stopped yet!"
