Love it! What more can you say. You will too. Patrick Tull is the best reader and I love his style and accent. Of course this is the best series of books ever. Start at the first book and work your way through them all. Great 1790 to 1810 series of Napoleonic sea battles. Of course the characters are fiction but the battles are close to realistic based on his research. Either way, really interesting. It also contains an interesting story line of lives intertwining together and the story of two very different men who are great friends through it all. Patrick O'brian is one of the great writers.
