Customer Reviews

An amazing book on survival preparation. This book is a must read for anyone and everyone as we do not know where life takes us and what situations might we have to face. The best part about this book is that it breaks down things in the order of importance for survival so that we are the best to fight the situation at hand. Right from water acquisition to its purification and from making fire to setting up a shelter in extreme cases -- this book covers it all in a step-by-step method and helps you to get things in perspective. My favourite hack was how to prevent oneself from being attacked by any wild animals or predators. Thus, all in all, this book is a must have for all travellers and non-travellers alike to make the best of the worst situations. I surely recommend this book to anyone and everyone.

I have read many books around disasters, crisis care and the like. Fredrick is an outstanding writer: engaging, compelling and clear. He has done a very thorough research of human behavior in the midst of disasters. Absolutely a must-read for those who work with community safety and disaster response.

This is a great book where you will learn everything you need to survive in a variety of disasters. Also, this is a valuable reference for those who love to spend time in nature, and do not carry unnecessary things. Indeed, this is a very useful book, and I'm satisfied with this reading.

This is a great book that offers a lot of great ideas and suggestions to prepare for any event. Very extensive, sensible preparation guide by an experienced writer. I enjoyed this read. Thorough knowledge of the subject and several other resources quoted throughout the book. Excellently laid out,

I am thankful for this book! This has taught me a lot of techniques and tactics to survive in cases of emergency. This is really a practical book because no one knows what is going to happen and better be prepared than be sorry and regret that you have not in instances where you need it the most. Thumbs up to the author for this!
