Before the era of YouTube, Angi Sullins created the short inspirational film, A Knock at the Door, which went viral in a word-of-mouth campaign, garnering over four million fans. She is the author of Doorways and Dreamfields: A True Fairy Tale, A Knock at the Door, and Digital Art Wonderland, and highlights from her popular Message from the Muse blog were collected into her first audio book, Flaming Muse: Matchstick Tales that Ignite the Soul. As the founder and president of Duirwaigh Studios, a multimedia design studio creating products and services that inspire soulful imagination, she has helped artists and aspiring creatives find their unique voice, while molding a space in today's market for creative consciousness. Her words and original works of art can be found on hundreds of greeting cards, calendars, journals, and collectibles worldwide. She dwells in the state of enchantment with her husband and creative partner, Silas Toball.

I purchased this calendar to grace a wall in my Tarot & Reiki studio. It's art is stunning with a fresh perspective. The images can take you far to other destinations existing in one's subconscious. I actually had to buy two calendars and will be placing the other elsewhere as I adored them both so much. Still, this one is my most favorite of all the calendars I've had over these past several years.

I have been ordering A Knock at the Door Calendars by Angi Sullins for several years. I usually order 2 - one to display and one to save. The fantasy/fairy tale inspired art is always gorgeous and the words are always inspiring.

I bought this for one of the illustrations that I framed. There was too much witchcraft in it so I tossed the rest. Otherwise lovely artwork.

I chose this for myself as a calendar and am very pleased. I kind of wish it were a bit heavier paper stock, but the fact that the date portion is also printed with a matching artistic sort of background instead of on plain white is lovely and it looks very nice. I have had compliments on the first month's saying and artwork. It is nice to have something enjoyable to look at when you use it and see it everyday.

I love the art and the motivational quotes on this calendar -- it could easily be a 5-star item for me if not for one important detail: the paper is very thin and the holes tear on about half the pages. I've taped them, but it really diminishes the look of the calendar. The same thing happened with last year's calendar. It hasn't been a problem with other calendars I've owned, so I'm on the fence as to whether or not I'll buy one for 2017.

Imaginative, beautiful artwork that includes a quote to inspire. This is the third year I've bought one.

We've been buying one every year for four years now. We like that it's both eye-catching and able to blend in with our more fantasy themed décor (while still serving functionally as a calendar).

Some of the pictures are not as spectacular as the others. This calendar is over-rated.
