Synopsis

NOWHERE TO RUN by MARY ALFORD: When you don't know which way to turn, the most dangerous place to fall is in love. Surrounded by death and lies, the last thing Dr. Jordan Scott needs is to fall in love. Jordan thought she knew her boyfriend better than anyone until a Detective Riley Donovan confronts her with the truth about her brother's death. His murder was no random act of violence. And Caesar is the prime suspect, which puts her directly in the path of danger.

IMPERFECT by CHRISTY BARRITT: A book signing in the mountain town of Perfect seems just like what novelist Morgan Blake needs to revive her creative juices. Her trip there takes a wrong turn when she's involved in a hit and run. She hits a man, and he's run from the scene. Before fleeing, he mouthed the word "help." Once in town, she searches for answers about the man's identity. But the deeper she digs, the more she suspects she was lured to town for an ulterior purpose. Only one man can help her . . . if he survives in time to reach her.

THE UNRELENTING TIDE by LYNNETTE BONNER: Widowed former-Hollywood-actress Devynne Lang has been living a quiet life in the San Juan Islands of the Pacific Northwest. For years, she's hoped her fabricated death would keep her identity safe from the public, and more to the point, from the stalker who forced her into hiding. But strange things have been happening around her place and this time, with a daughter to protect, she can't afford one mistake even if it means letting Carcen Lang get close enough to help.

SAVING GRACE by LESLEY ANN McDANIEL: When an obsessive fan forces opera singer Tracy Fontaine to change her name to Grace Addison and go into hiding in a small Montana town, the last thing she wants is to get to know the locals. Now, not one but two men have worked their way into her daily routine, much to the chagrin of a jealous local girl, who insists on prying into Grace's past and stirring up deadly trouble. Will Grace find love in Madison Falls or will her stalker find her?

PREY by LISA PHILLIPS: Mark Heyland is on the run with a flash drive of information...and his sister. His past is catching up, and they need the help of the sibling they've never met. Samantha Kurter is a sheriff's deputy in Buckshot, Colorado. But even being a former Marine isn't going to help when a dangerous criminal abducts the sheriff's long lost brother. Lives are on the line and loyalty is tested as Samantha's daughter is put in danger. How will they survive a night being hunted as prey?

IDENTITY THEFT by ALANA TERRY: After a devastating accident stole her fiancé and robbed her of a normal life, Lacy does what she can to move on. It's hard enough living in Glennallen, Alaska with its negative-fifty-degree winters and mosquito-ravaged summers. Things get even more complicated when she meets Kurtis, an Alaska state trooper, and his delightful four-year-old daughter who would love nothing more than to make Lacy her new mom. A traumatized past makes it hard for Lacy to commit to this new relationship, especially since she can't shake the nagging suspicion that her fiancé isn't dead like the police reports claim. All she wants is closure, but as she seeks out real answers, she discovers how deadly the truth can actually be.

HOMEcoming HOMICIDE by VIRGINIA VAUGHAN: When a case of mistaken identity has Kim Clarkson accused of a crime she did not commit, she must rely on her newfound faith and the investigative skills of her husband, homicide detective Mike Clarkson, the man whose heart she broke and hopes to win back in order to see her name cleared. He'll have to look past his own pain and distrust to uncover the truth and protect Kim from the real killer who is determined to see her blamed at any cost.

Customer Reviews

If you are looking for some enjoyable reading, you can't go wrong with this set of books. So far, I have read three of them and have really enjoyed them. They have a nice blend of romance, suspense, and Christianity without being "preachy." I love to read, but many novels end up having parts that are not in line with Christian morals. These books have been perfect for summer pleasure reading. For the price, you certainly can't go wrong.

All of the stories were very well done. I enjoyed all 7 of them. I didn't want to stop reading
