Timeless piano music that radiates the genius of Edvard Grieg for his homeland.

This is a very good depiction of the set of pieces which are among my favorites. G. Schirmer deserves credit for making such good music available in such good scores available.

Easy to read, bookk loies flaT

Exellent

This book has offered me countless hours of playing, and has provided wonderful selections for lessons as well as personal entertainment. This has been my most satisfying purchase on , and it is great to have all of Grieg's lyric pieces.

These are the some of the most beautiful pieces of Grieg's. All except the "Mountain King". That's ok, loved the music. Thanks.

Extremely reasonable price for loa full collection ofGrieg.

Gosh, these are wonderful pieces and such fun to play. They range in difficulty from fairly simple to quite technically tough in a few cases but most pianists of moderate ability (like me) will find many to enjoy. Grieg writes often in a folk manner, summoning the spirit of his native Norway with dances, wedding marches and nationalistic songs. Many of these pieces have a melancholic tinge, others are wistful but some a sheer joy. There are also some unusual harmonies that were ahead of their time. There are over 60 of these mainly short sketches (although some run several pages and are more ambitious) and they are an inexhaustible source of delight. The edition, as one would expect, is clear with fingering and solidly bound for years of use.
