Customer Reviews

It is fine for someone who has read "50 Shades" and wants to know what some of the things mentioned really are. But it is just a basic primer, list of terms and definitions. No insight, no suggestions. If you are curious about BDSM and want to know more, this is a good book to start with.

Not bad for the beginner of bondage in the bedroom. Explains terms to the reader in an open and easy to read format.

I found this book interesting and good light reading for beginners in BDSM. It gives simple definitions in layman's terms that everyone can understand. Short and to the point, it is a no nonsense book for those serious about study without being too heavy on the reader. Four Stars for a good presentation and follow through. One lacking star for no illustrations.

Excellent resource for the novice

Googling could have done the job but you have to know the terms to begin with....at least it offers that much but not much else

I paid for this book and never got it

Was informative . It explains what a new comer would need to know about the lifestyle

Basically this is just a dictionary, defining terms. Not a total waste of money, not dissatisfied, but not sure I'd buy it again if I'd seen what it is, either.
