Customer Reviews

Tim Neely is book editor and research director of Goldmine[trademark] magazine. He has written Goldmine[trademark] Standard Catalog of[registered] American Records 1950-1975, Goldmine[trademark] Records & Prices, and more than a dozen other record collecting books. His personal collection contains more than 20,000 records. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

exceeded my expectations. It's everything it says it is and more good book, it doesn't get into many obscure artists like riff ruffin, harmonica slim, williw egans etc but for more mainstream stuff it's pretty good

A very good edition. Lists releases by many artists. Easy to locate information regarding songs. It is a thick book, the reason being, lots of information.

I ordered a used copy and it came in pristine condition. It's a helpful reference manual for more Current 45's I am Very Happy with the transaction.

GREAT BOOK, I JUST UPDATED MY OLD ONE AND THIS BOOK IS THE GREATEST !!!

It was a great help in pricing out my later brothers collection has everything

worked well...good purchase
