The Korean War: History In An Hour

Synopsis

Love history? Know your stuff with History in an Hour. Bringing together the military might of the Soviet Union, China, North Korea, South Korea, the United Kingdom and the United Nations States, the Korean War raged for three years from 1950 to 1953. Not only the result of a carving of Korean territories following the Pacific conflicts of the Second World War, it was also a battle of ideologies as General MacArthur's American military forces occupied the southern half and Stalin's Soviet forces supported the northern half. Initiated by infantry movements and air raids, the region gradually became mired in a static trench war by July 1951, and would continue to cost both sides in both morale and human lives. The Korean War: History in an Hour is the concise story to one of the most bitter and enduring conflicts of the post-war era.

Customer Reviews

Simply the most concise piece history of the Korean War. Informative to the point where the reader could not stop reading it to the end. The appendices are worth the reviewing for that added punch. Great work!

It is an easy read and a decent primer on Korea. At times the writing is less than clear. The editing/proofreading could have been better.

Succinct history/summary.

This war happened over 60 years ago and it's good to get a refresher on how it all started and why, especially when we have loved ones that were involved.

I was disappointed in our politicians that they would not let General Douglas MacArthur use every option available to him to bring the war to a speedy conclusion--I lost many good friends from the 1st Marine Division because of their actions. Charles Lindberg Ogle

It was my war but I served here in the USA This filled in the gaps which I did not know about I did serve with a combat veteran who went from the Yalu river to the 38th during the Chinese offense

It was very factual & current. The coverage was very thorough.

Really liked and appreciated what was in here. New nothing of the Korean War prior. This set up Vietnam and the Cold War and our nation's war on communism. Really fascinating stuff.
