Dana Eagle grew up in New Jersey. She was her fifth-grade class president and has the distinction of surviving two impeachments and an assassination attempt. (She was later overthrown by a coup.) She's made numerous TV appearances including Comedy Central, Last Comic Standing, The Tonight Show, The Late, Late Show, and Comics Unleashed. Among her greatest memories are her trips to Iraq to perform for the troops. Dana's one woman show was featured at the HBO US Comedy Arts Festival. She would like to be your spirit animal.

Buy this book. Get six. Give to six friends. They'll tell six friends. Terrific, well-developed treatment of tough subject. Honestly. One of my favorite books ever. Pithy. Genuinely super funny. If you've read it, review it. Hope Dana's working on her next book. Types of therapists one of my favorite sections. Extra: Illustrations super fun and perfect tone. One quick thought: was book originally going to be larger size? Doll-in-box illustrations lose detail, but hey, could be my eye. Eyes.

I led a normal life until I got this book. Using all of the tips and tricks that I am learning about becoming depressed has made me gain weight, lose pigmentation in my skin, and order blankets on that are soft enough for me to call in sick to work for days in a row. I think it's working. This book is absolutely hilarious!

Hilarious and gorgeous. Stand-up comedian Dana Eagle's debut book is laugh-out-loud funny, and the artwork makes it worthy of a coffee table. Makes a great gift for anyone with emotions.

Very very funny. Light hearted approach to a serious problem. Should be in every shrink office in America. Keep it real.

I picked up this book because I saw Dana Eagle doing standup on tv a while back and remembered she was hilarious. I remembered correctly! This book is seriously funny. It'sÂ™s awesome because it'sÂ™s the kind of thing you want to read cover to cover but also, I have it on my coffee table and a few friends have come over and just picked a random page and were laughing out loud.

Love it!

Immensely clever Dana has a future in publishing.

Great book with a lot of insight, first-hand knowledge and a quirky take on things. You can't stay depressed because you're laughing so much.

LOVED this book. Absolutely hilarious & such a great read. Highly recommend this to anyone who wants to laugh out loud.
