The Lake Monster Mystery (Choose Your Own Adventure - Dragonlark)

Synopsis

The Lake Monster Mystery by Shannon Gilligan takes YOU on a fun, spooky, and magical adventure, as you and your sister search for Champ, the legendary lake monster who lives in Lake Champlain. Your 6-8 year old reader will be the very first explorer to snap photos of the mythical beast, maneuver choppy waters on board a wobbly canoe, and brave a haunted house! Choose Your Own Adventure The Lake Monster Mystery is an interactive adventure book in which YOU decide what happens next. What do you do if you discover an old, mysterious box? Is it a clue to finding Champ? Or a trick to throw you off the case? For readers that enjoyed other titles from the Choose Your Own Adventure Dragonlark series including: The Haunted House by R. A. Montgomery, Sand Castle by R. A. Montgomery, and Return to Haunted House by R. A. Montgomery.

SHANNON GILLIGAN is a well-known creator of interactive, narrative computer games. She has spoken about interactive narrative and game design at conferences in Japan, Europe, and the United States. Gilligan got her start in this field by writing for the Choose Your Own Adventure series in the 1980s. Her books and games have sold several million copies around the world. She graduated from Williams College in 1981 and lives in Warren, Vermont with her husband R.A.

Montgomery and her extended family. Gilligan returns to Asia at least once a year. She harbors a secret ambition to write a cookbook.

I agree with the previous reviewers that this book needs to be properly edited and re-issued. Looking for the monster across the "lack" instead of lake is unacceptable. However, if you can correct the errors in your head as you read it aloud to small children, this book is delightful. My 4 and 6-year-old love choose-your-own adventure books, but most of the classic ones are too long, have scary themes, and some encourage immoral behavior such as cheating and stealing. All the story paths in this book are short and sweet. It takes between 5 and 10 minutes to read one of 8 possible stories. The storylines of this book were perfect because the "bad" endings weren't too sad or scary. The worst that happens is you don't find the friendly monster. We are buying this book because it officially spends more time in our living room than it does on the shelves of the public library.

Choose your own way the story progresses in so much fun --- my grandsons like this book!

Reading this together and choosing which way to go was so much fun. The only downside was that the first time we read it the story was finished in just a few short pages.

I read choose your own adventure books all the time as a child and wanted to get my grand-daughter started. The story is cute. It is a very quick read out loud. She was able to choose options and excited to have a new story each night. I'm sure she'll be able to read on her own soon enough.

great series of books for beginner readers in kindergarten and first grade.

While the concept for these books is great, and we loved other books in the series, this particular book appears to have fallen through the editing cracks. There are obvious errors on many pages. For an emerging reader, this especially difficult. I don't want a book to teach my child incorrect spelling and grammar!

I agree with the previous reviewer...this book must have slipped through the editing cracks. I returned the book because there are errors throughout the book.
