Written by Jay Scarfone and William Stillman, authors of "The Wizardry of Oz: The Artistry and Magic of the 1939 M-G-M Classic." --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

This is THE bible to everything you wanted to know about the MGM Oz movie. There were a couple of publications prior that could technically be called the first as far as exploring the MGM movie but they were full of errors and didn't have all the information and a lot of the great stuff here that John Fricke has researched and collected. LOVE IT!!!

Really dynamite book on Oz the 1939 movie. A must-have for any Oz fan or collector. Full of new and interesting information and the pictures many before never seen make for a plush book.

A sepia tornado hurls Dorothy's house out at you. Turn the page and the glorious color of Oz comes to life as Glinda hovers over Dorothy. Out of the many illustrated pop-up Oz books, this one is done with actual photos from our beloved movie! The book even creaks as Dorothy renders aid to the Tin Man. 11 pop-outs (6 of them are hidden in the side flaps) makes the reader part of the movie while turning the moving pages and lifting the flaps to discover all the familiar things we've grown to love. Just imagine melting the Wicked Witch at your will with only your fingertips. And if that's not enough, pop the CD out of it's pocket and into your player and listen to Judy Garland sing "Somewhere Over The Rainbow". Besides being a warm memento of the movie, this book is FUN!! Check out another Oz-some book by William Stillman and Jay Scarfone "The Wizardry Of OZ", they make great companion pieces.

This book is loaded with pictures from the original movie. My 3 year old grandson wants to keep reading it over and over again and looking at the pictures. The pop-ups are so much fun and for now, this book is a favorite. What a magical way to capture the legacy of this timeless classic. Highly recommended!

What a treasure of information and photos! Beautiful condition. Like new at an unbelievable price! Thank you.
