Massey is an English poet. He has lectured extensively in Spiritualism. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

As you can see, my name is Amenta-----and so I bought and TRIED to read this-----. I found it quite difficult to read-----probably no one but an historian could read it.Maybe if I'm ever stranded on a dessert island -----I'll try again.

Great Book

takes you back in times the true identity of so-called black Americans!

This book is very informative, been wanting this book ever since I came onto this path 11 yrs. ago and Gerald Massey is an excellent author!

Need to add to your library great educational reading for the family.

Respect the author of this book for his authentic perspective

Very hard read this book. Keep a dictionary handy, you almost need a translator. It's informative though.

This book clarifies everything you need to know about the 141 negative confessions. It is a good book for those who are open-minded or somewhat know the origin of religion in it's connection to Africa or ancient kemet in particular.
