The annual fair is being held at the Pink Lemonade Lagoon so Olga, Arika and Heidi will be in attendance. As usual, Arika is styling her hair and anxiously awaiting her expected interviews by the media. She represents the Teen Cutie Patootie magazine. Mr. Zonk is still up to his evil ways and he is attempting to sabotage the cookie contest at the fair. He thinks with a bio-engineered crumb crunching cookie monster that he will be able to destroy the cookies of Olga and her team. Just hilarious, once again. Pillage Village is mentioned as well as reporters "Mahhhvelous" and "Dahhhling". I got a real laugh out of the Controlled Media News Network (CMNN) reporting station. Also, the Re-writing History Channel that Mr. Zonk enjoyed. As the author suggests, recommended for ages 7 - 12. I am sure adults will get a few laughs as did I! Drawings are well done and the story is excellent. Most highly recommended.

news "babes"... really? There were multiple words that I changed to feel comfortable reading it to my six-year-old daughter. The story really didn't make too much sense and some parts were not for little kids, even though they might be accurate in today's world ("reporting the news that we want you to know", "reprogramming" in regards to a tv station that reprograms your brain to be more susceptible to outside influence). Just overall not a story that I will read to her again

It takes you on adventures where in the end you just can't wait to read another one in that series. I would definitely recommend this book to kids who love cookies I love how something bad happens but Heidi and her friends always save the world since Mr Zonk tries to take over the world every day but he never wins this was an excellent book and I hope you read it soon

My 8 year old daughter read all these book in one day. She said she liked them though, and would probably read more if others in the series were published.

This book is crazy funny! The illustrations are really pretty, and the characters are hysterical. I've read all of the Adventures in Cutie Patootie Land books and love them all! I haven't read such a cool, fun series as this! Looking forward to the next ones!

It was really fun and creative my child really enjoyed it. It was really good and adventurous I'm sure anyone could love this book.

I loved it. Kids should really read this funny and teamwork book. This was great . READ IT.

I chose this rating because it was charming and funny. It was about these girls tricking Mr. ZONK and helping them get a blue ribbon for the Cutie Patootie land cookie fair. It was interesting. It sure did have a lot of cartoons!
