GSD Platform 4

Synopsis

Beyond a design school, the Harvard Graduate School of Design (GSD) is an immersive environment--a dense atmosphere saturated with creative and intellectual activity. Platform 4 represents a selective sampling of agendas cultivated at the GSD during the last academic year, revealing a diverse mixture of projects, research, and events. Organized as a searchable database, this publication documents both site and situation at the GSD--it is an institutional index. While Platform 4 records research trajectories from the past year, it also has the capacity to set agendas for future work. By framing a set of issues and topics, Platform 4 focuses attention towards particular areas of interest, allowing individual work to build on and contribute to a larger body of disciplinary knowledge. In that sense, the themes within this book become projective, they provide frameworks for future inquiry.

Students from the GSD provide a framework to build upon Eric Howeler is Assistant Professor of Architecture at Harvard GSD. He teaches in the core studio sequence and offers courses in other areas, including building assemblies. He is a principal of Howeler + Yoon Architecture LLP. HYA is a multidisciplinary practice working between architecture, art and media.

GSD Platform 4 is an abstract of the quality and creativity of student's work. It is a good book to have as reference as well as for those who want to come to GSD to study architecture and urban planning and have an understanding of their pedagogy. Personally, GSD Platform 4 contains beautiful drawings, however, there needs to be more explanations of each of the studio's process. Portfolio: for undergraduates and graduate students alike, GSD Platform 4 can also be used as a reference in laying out a portfolio, using diagrams and renderings as inspiration for your own.

Nice book

the shipping were dealt at a good rate product itself is one of my favorite booklots to see and projects that are done in gsd are always eye and mind pleasing
