Customer Reviews

Children are introduced to the Spanish language through stories, short songs and brief, thematic vocabulary lessons. -- School Library Journal With fun songs and story line, kids love listening and singing along while building a basic vocabulary. -- Family Fun Magazine, November 2006 Young children can learn languages easier if they are given an entertaining format of stories, games and songs. -- Dr. Toy (Stevanne Auerbach, PH.D.)

Beth Manners, writer and producer, worked for ten years as a project manager in international business and learned first-hand the importance of speaking other languages. She also observed, from European colleagues living in the states, how easy it is for young children to learn new languages. Upon becoming a mother in 1990, her interest and passion for early-language learning developed. She wrote her first script in 1996 and assembled a team of language teachers, college professors, composers, and foreign speaking child actors and singers to produce Fun French for Kids. She followed up with Fun Spanish for Kids in 1998 and released Magic French for Kids and Magic Spanish for Kids in 2000. Beth also gives an interactive introduction to French and Spanish for young children at events throughout the Northeast.

My 2 and 4 year old love this. It's fast paced, combination of story and song. Has a quiz at the end with the sounds you listen to throughout the CD. Great ideas! Engaging.

We enjoy listening to it

After an introduction to Spanish, my students really enjoy CD's - especially ones that feature "real " conversations or catchy songs. This one is pretty good, but I agree with the other reviewers, the vocabulary that is focused on does not go as well with other textbooks or curriculum, and so is not reinforcing or building confidence near as much as it could. I recommend Hop Skip and Sing as well (by Ana Lomba) but it's a little young for my 6 year old already. As with all CD's, I do recommend flash cards or something to go along with it, to help concrete the information and the experience. Immersion works, but only after a foundation (however small) has been built. Presenting the target language (Spanish in this case) in many formats will produce better results, faster, and longer lasting! Sra. Gose Author of Flip Flop Spanish: Ages 3-5: Level 1 & Flip Flop Spanish Flash Cards: Verde (Cards)

Good job

I bought this for my 2 year old to listen to and have found it very educational and FUN for myself as well. Having taken Spanish in high school, I had some background, but had forgotten most of it. This was a great refresher...much more entertaining than learning it out of books like I did back then. My two year old likes it as well - we've only had it for a couple weeks, but she mimics words back. I highly recommend! I just ordered Beth Manners' Magic Spanish CD since I liked this one so well.

This plays nonstop in our car. We need another one now! :) Thank you!

Thank you so very much. Delivered on time and so appreciated.

Got this for my daycare
