"Our Korean Kitchen, for cooks who are ready to get familiar with Korean food step-by-step." (Food.com)

Jordan Bourke was named the winner of the K-Food Festival, a competition searching for the UK's best Korean chef. He was also awarded an honorary ambassadorship by the Korean

Foreign Ministry to promote Korean food in the UK. He learned his craft in Korea from a number of the most respected chefs and food producers in the country, as well as his wife, Regina Pyo, his frequent collaborator. ã Æ

This is the best Korean cook book written in English I've ever seen so far. I love beautiful picture in it and explanations are easy to understand. This Irish chef-Korean designer couple made great collaboration on this book made for revealing best kept secret in Asia.

Bought through UK 12/15. Jordan Bourke is an Irish chef who is married to a Korean designer. Of all of the Korean books I've bought over the years this holds the best balance between realistic recipes and authenticity. None of the recipes were too daunting, but all looked familiar to me as someone who has cook Korean before. I look forward to finding some new favorites in here. Well organized. Beautiful photos. Easy to read recipes. Must be prepared for British measures and terms.
