Never received the book

This book would be worth its' weight in gold if it could be counted on to be accurate, but unfortunately it is not. I could have saved a lot of money if the hidden disclaimer inside the cover that "this book cannot possibly be 100% accurate". I needed to contact Bruce Springsteen immediately on a time-limited matter on behalf of a handicapped young man, and as it was extremely urgent I contact him quickly, and there was so many conflicting contact addresses available online, I purchased this book at the cost of $97 plus tax for a total of $104.76 and had it rush-shipped. I then sent the letter express overnight at a cost of $21.30 to the address of Jon Landau Management provided in the book. It was returned 4 days later, unopened, marked "Forwarding Expired, Return To Sender", meaning that the address was so out of date that mail could no longer be forwarded to the next address. You would think a star of this magnitude would not be that hard to keep track of by an address service that charges this much. I'm out $126.06 and was unable to reach Bruce Springsteen in time on behalf of someone who really needed it. Yeah...no. Joe Dallesandro (actor---or at least the actor we care about) does NOT in fact live in Chicago. He lives in a residential hotel which he manages in West Hollywood. As far as I know, he's NEVER lived in Chicago. DON'T BUY THIS BOOK. Glad I didn't.
