Nova Scotia Book Of Everything: Everything You Wanted To Know About Nova Scotia And Were Going To Ask Anyway

Synopsis

From the number of kilometers of coastline to the stories behind those weird place names (hello Ecum Secum) to profiles of Joe Howe and Alexander Keith, there is no book as comprehensive as the Nova Scotia Book of Everything. There is also no book more fun. Well-known Nova Scotians like Premier Rodney MacDonald weigh in on subjects like the five Nova Scotians he admires most; Ashley MacIsaac tells us his five greatest Nova Scotians; Joel Plaskett gives up his favourite hangouts. The worst weather, Nova Scotia slang, the greatest crimes—it's all here! Whether you are a life long resident or visiting for the first time, there simply is no other book that delivers the goods. If you love Nova Scotia, you'll love the Nova Scotia Book of Everything.

Customer Reviews

"A marvelously eclectic compendium; historic, contemporary, geographic, economic, meteorological, sociological, anthropological, political, positive, negative, important, trivial and just plain fun; that goes a long way to explaining who we are." — Stephen Kimber, author, Sailors, Slackers, and Blind Pigs "I wanted to see if the contents lived up to the front cover boast that it included everything you wanted to know. I read it cover to cover. This is a book worthy of a series." — Yarmouth Vanguard

Publishing.

Good because it covers a lot of ground and is concise.

Quirky, but amusing. I had hoped for something that was little more academic, I suppose. But it's a fun book and I'm glad I bought it. I would love to meet the Author because I'm afraid his brain works a lot like mine.

Easy reading. Great information.
