Dr. Cara Natterson, a graduate of Harvard University and the John Hopkins School of Medicine, is a respected pediatrician. She is an online expert at momlogic.com, parentsask.com, gurumommy.com. Dr. Natterson lives in Los Angeles, California with her husband and two children.

This book was purchased to train young girls in institutional care on their periods and body. We used it in a cross-cultural environment. Although, written in English, the pictures are plentiful and universal. There are many multi-cultural girls in the book. Absolutely loved it and bought one for every girl in the class. I highly recommend this for girls ages 11 and up, but please refer to the author's recommendations. Beautifully done and thoughtfully laid out, chapter after chapter. A winner.

Highly recommend these books for girls

Great book once you've had "the talk" to support any additional questions she may have. Creates a comfortable dialogue starter for both parties involved.

Grateful for the guidance

Daughter loved this.

Educational

Good book for girls.

perfect for my daughter to read as her body is changing.
