Customer Reviews

Alexandra Day's modern classic Good Dog Carl has sold more than 200,000 copies, captivating countless readers with the lovable rottweiler Carl, endearing illustrations, and the tale's surprising silliness. The book begins with the mother saying, "Look after the baby, Carl. I'll be back shortly." Let the adventure begin! Carl looks out the window to make sure Mom is gone. Once the coast is clear, the baby crawls out of the crib and onto Carl's back. First stop? Mom's bed. Second stop? The top of the dresser where powder puffs are sported as hats. The infant--now in Carl's capable paws--slides down the laundry chute, swims in the fish tank, dances, raids the refrigerator, and makes a huge mess. Carl dutifully bathes the baby, cleans up the chaos, puts his charge back in the crib, and plays it cool when Mom comes home. "Good dog, Carl!" she says upon her return. A sweet, subtly absurd picture book that jubilantly illustrates the old adage, "When the cat's away, the mice will play." My daughter need this for a middle school project so the fast delivery was great.

I didn't realize this was a small hard page book all the way through. However, I am so pleased, I love it even more then my original book.

Purchased fro a library to add to the children's reading section.

This is the first in a long, wonderful line of mostly wordless books about a faithful rottweiler tasked with minding his owner's precocious baby girl. Alexandra Day's stories exude her own affection for rottweilers, no doubt convincing many readers that this breed of dog is not necessarily ferocious or bloodthirsty. All ages should appreciate the beautiful yet accessible oil paintings Day uses to illustrate Carl's adventures.

Great book. One of my all time favorites. Good price.

Super cute book! I love the pictures

One of the greatest children's books of all time!

Great 1st book!
